HOT LIST '007!

A MONTH-BY-MONTH, NOT-TO-MISS LIST OF L.A.'S HIPPEST-AND MOST MOD-ALICIOUS-HOT SPOTS

BY THE EDITORS | PHOTOGRAPHY BY ETHAN PINES

Another year, another round of resolutions. This year, however, L.A. is taking a clean sweep straight to the streets, where the hottest shops and most happening clubs, buzz-iest restaurants and fittest gyms are celebrating a Renaissance of less is more. From a BevHills spa that's gone totally Zen-den to an over-the-top mod boutique, the city is suddenly all about clean lines, razor-sleek attitude and utter simplicity at its sexiest-12 months a year.

NOVEMBER

BOOK A SWEET SUITE No other hotel has garnered more buzz over the past year than THE LONDON NYC, which debuted in Midtown Manhattan in November. The 54-story, 564-room hotel brought together a dream team of talent: Irish designer David Collins—most notable for his work at the Berkeley in London—designed the rooms and public spaces. World-famous chef Gordon Ramsay, recognizable from television's Hell's Kitchen, runs the restaurant and room service. And celebrity concierge service Quintessentially has been installed as the hotel's own in-house Jeeves. With its undersized lobby and very livable rooms, The London feels more like a luxury residential tower than it does a typical city hotel. The best rooms are the upper-floor Vista Suites, especially the ones with French doors separating the parlor from the bedchamber. Rates from $399. 151 W. 54th St., New York, 866.690.2029 or www.thelondonnyc.com.

TRAVEL RUNNERS-UP: Miami's sexiest new hotel is the long-awaited REGENT SOUTH BEACH. 800.545.4000 or www.regenthotels.com. | Napa's SOLAGE CALISTOGA marks the launch of a brand-new, more affordable luxury brand from the creators of Auberge du Soleil. 866.942.7442 or www.solagehotels.com.
