Get Away

The Platinum Hotel & Spa (211 East Flamingo Road, Las Vegas, 877-211-9211; theplatinumhotel.com): This deluxe, nongaming condo hotel opened last fall, complete with top-of-the-line one- and two-bedroom suites, which include private terraces, Bose radios, whirlpool baths, and fireplaces. Guests can work smart with Wi-Fi capabilities throughout the property, exercise at the on-site fitness studio, then pop up to Misora, the 17th-floor rooftop terrace, where telescopes offer voyeuristic views of Sin City. Pamper yourself with a treatment at the Well Spa—try the Well Spa Cure, which employs the antioxidant power of pomegranate. At the restaurant, executive chef Brent Hammer whips up imaginative experiences like roasted Colorado lamb shoulder with a sweet-corn cloud, powdered flavors of the Mediterranean, and atomized rosemary air, which can be served as a full entrée or as a "micro plate," depending on your appetite. Pair it with classic French Bordeaux from the sommelier's list, or opt for something more daring, like an Argentinian Malbec.
